MCAMW President's Column December 2015—

As my year as MCAMW President comes to a close, I want to send a sincere thank you to all who have contributed their time & talents to making this a dynamic & memorable year for our Association. 2015 was a significant year for rebuilding relationships between labor & management. Together with our labor partners, the MCAMW Board of Directors revamped CAUSE to strengthen our bond & grow market share in the metro Washington area. We retained a marketing strategist, 360 Live Media, to help us determine how to evolve our industry into a world class institute. Be on the look out for exciting changes in 2016 as we launch an innovative marketing campaign to change the image of our industry.

The MCAMW Board is excited about the addition of new faces in 2016 but saddened to say goodbye to the Board members who have shared their time & expertise these past few years. As we all know, change represents growth and we've been seeing some new young faces at many MCA's events—please continue to invite these young industry stars to get involved with MCAMW. Strides have also been made with other important industry issues. MCAA General Counsel John McNerney continues to work on Phase II of "Solutions Not Bailouts," a plan to help safeguard multi-employer retirement security. Let's continue to support MCAA's PAC in this effort, and in other legislative efforts.

Let's ring out the New Year in celebration of our MCAMW friends & families who have enriched our lives & blessed us with lasting memories.
